Canada Names New Issue Date For "First Elected Assembly" Commem; Symbolic In Design

The commemorative stamp previously announced by Canada to note the 200th anniversary of the nation's first elected assembly to appear September 10 has been given a new release date, October 2. This will correspond with the precise anniversary date of the 1758 event being noted.

The beginning of the democratic form of government in the Dominion took place in the city of Halifax October 2, 1758 with the meeting of the duly elected House of Representatives of what was to become Canada.

William Hamilton, Canadian Postmaster General, has called attention to the design of the new 5c dark blue adhesive. Featured are the Mace and the Speaker's Chair, accepted as the two most popular symbols of the parliamentary system in our northern neighbor.

U. S. Society's Convention September 18-21; Exhibition Will Stress French Philately

Eugene A. Hamard

The 64th annual convention and exhibition of the Society of Philatelic Americans, popularly known as the SPA, will convene in the Hotel Windsor, Montreal, Canada at 8-p. m. Thursday, September 18. Special business and committee meetings will take place during the preceding philatelic interests of the convention Being pioneer North American territory, and in addition retaining the strong French atmosphere of its background, Montreal will offer a pleasing combination of early French America and strictly modern atmosphere. Furthermore, being so strongly French, it is but natural to expect that those phases of philately pertaining to what was once the mother country will be especially prominent.

Last year the organization met at Long Beach, Calif. and the officials of the group selected Montreal for the 1958 event in order to afford equally interesting and pleasant yet very different, attractions for the extra-philatelic interests of the convention goers.

mother country will be especially prominent.

In this direction, postal historians and airmail enthusiasts will find a philatelic study of the Paris war days of 1870-71 most interesting. For if all the wars of Napoleon III left their marks on the correspondence of their respective periods, then indeed this 1870-71 epoch of the Franco-Prussian conflict must have left the greatest mark of all.

From the very beginning of hostilities, July 15, 1870, the Prussian armies swept over France. After an uninterrupted series of reverses, the Emperor of France was taken prisoner at Sedan where he surrendered September 2. The Empress took refuge in Belgium on the same date that the Third Republic was proclaimed in Paris.

Scarcely had the provisional government under the presidency of that the Third Republic was proclaimed in Paris.

Scarcely had the provisional government under the presidency of Gen. Trochu invested him with the powers of the government and he had appointed M. Rampont, a deputy from Yonne, as Director General of Posts, when on September 13, 1870 the enemy's march on Paris forced him to dispatch to the city of Tours a delegation of the government consisting of Messrs. Cremieux, Fouchiron and Glais-Bizoin.

The siege of the capital (Paris) then brought about a serious postal problem, namely: that of finding means of communication with places outside the encircled Paris. France was then actually divided into three parts, all different. Thus at the beginning of November, three new kinds of postage stamps were in use in the three different zones.

raine" stamps for those departments already conquered by the German forces; 2. The "Siege of Paris" issue for use in Paris. 3. The "Bordeaux Issue" for the remaining free part of France.

The Germans had made full preparations for thsi war, even to printing a special issue of stamps. Effective September 6, these "Occupation Stamps" which somewhat resembled the stamps of the old German States were sold at Nancy. They all showed a central numeral on a burelage (security paper) background with the word "Postes" at the top and the word "Centimes" at the bottom.

Beginning September 29 the first "mail receiving offices" (Bureaux de Recettes") were opened at Strasbourg, Bischwiller, Dieuze, and other points. Day by day as the enemy army advanced, new occupation post offices were opened — Metz on October 28, Amiens on November 27; Rouen was occupied on December 4, and so on.

As the conquering armies proceeded, French stamps were replaced by the small stamps (the "AlsaceLorraine" stamps); they were cancelled by the French postmark or even by the German postmarks or even by the Field Post Military postmarks, the so-called "Feld-Post Relais" (Field Post Stations).

In Paris the government of the "Defense Nationale" (National Defense) found a way to communicate with the provinces by the use of "Pallane Mortner" (Inilated balloene)

"Defense Nationale" (National Defense) found a way to communicate with the provinces by the use of "Ballons Montes" (piloted balloons). On September 23, balloonist pilot J. Durof, on board the balloon "Le Neptune" ascended from the Place St. Pierre in Montmartre. The balloon carried 125kg. of letters (about 275 pounds). After a trip lasting 3¼ hours it landed at Craconville, near Evreux.

On September 27 two decrees were published authorizing the administra-

MESSAGE FROM THE SPA PRESIDENT

Fred Barovick

The officers and members of the Society of Philatelic Americans are very fortunate indeed to have the opportunity to hold our convention in a foreign country. This has come about through the kind invitation of SPA Chapter No. 243, the Union Philatelique de Montreal, of Montreal, Canada.

de Montreal, of Montreal, Canada.

At this time of international strife it is heartwarming to know that through philately the SPA is able to bring peoples of the world closer together. This 64th Annual Convention in Montreal will give all philatelists, not just SPA members, an opportunity to meet our freindly northern neighbors. The exhibition, the banquet, the many tours and the other social events will give us visitors an excellent chance to mingle with our hosts and really get a taste of their well known hospitality.

We of the Society of Philatelic Americans as well as the Union Philatelique de Montreal invite all collectors to attend EXUP VIII and the 64th Annual Convention of the SPA in Montreal, Canada, September 18-21, 1958.

Butterfield Cachet In Apache Territory

Postal history will be reenacted September 16 through October 10 with a rerunning of the Butterfield Overland mail of a century ago. Leaving Tipton, Mo. September 16, it will retrace the old stage route to San Francisco as closely as modern day highway connections permit. The route cuts seven states—Missouri, Arkansas, Oklahoma, Texas, New Mexico, Arizona, and California.

Arizona is the state with the most

Arizona is the state with the most

as, New Mexico, Arizona, and Carifornia.

Arizona is the state with the most hectic history surrounding the Butterfield stages, for it was in southern Arizona that hostile Indians plagued the stage drivers and their passengers — and the U. S. mail. It was at a time when Cochise, colorful leader of the Apache tribe, had gone on the warpath in protest of the killing of some of his tribesmen by army soldiers through a territorial misunderstanding.

The rerun of the Butterfield Mail calls for four major stops in the erstwhile land of the Apaches. They are scheduled for Tucson, Casa Grande, Gila Bend, and Yuma, between October 2 and 5. The Phoenix Philatelic Assn. is issuing a set of four cachet covers — in four different colors — which will bear the postmarkings of these scheduled mail stops in Arizona.

The design will feature an original Butterfield mail stage coach and an outline map of Arizona showing all of the original stops made during the mail run 100 years ago The set of four is 60c, franked with with appropriate c o m m e m s. Orders should be sent at once to Robert Corless, 1826 W. Indianola Ave., Phoenix, Ariz. Profit fr o m the cachet sale will be used to defray expenses of the free Phoenix public stamp exhibition.

France, Germany In Europa Parade

September 13 will find France, West Germany and the Saar releasing their respective 1958 "Europa" emissions. This year all nations participating in the "Europa" program will follow a single design, by Netherlands artist Andre van der Vossen. It shows the script letter "E" surmounted by a stylized pigeon representing mail communications. mail communications.

The German offering is a pair, blue and The German offering is a pair, 10 pfennigs green and blue and 40pf. blue and red. Printing is by the Federal Printing Office, Berlin, with the editions "dependent on the demand" to quote the official announcement. The corresponding stanps, with the added caption "SAAR" and values of 12 and 50 francs, will be issued in the Saar.

France will follow through on the agreed "Europa" philatelic program with a 20fr. and 35fr. pair on the same day, according to Gimbel's Stamp & Coin Dept., New York. The design corresponds with the Luxembourg, Netherlands and German emissions, with the designer's name added vertically in the upper left, and that of engraver Pierre Gandon in the upper right background areas.

Foreign Philatelic

Agencies' Addresses

Bruce Ellison

Buying foreign stamps at face—the long-awaited dream of many American collectors—need not be put off. Many of the foreign governments maintain philatelic bureaus, and most of them sell at face to collectors in the United States.

September 8 Auction

By Cincinnati Society

The first public stamp auction of the season, under the direction of Sol Kaplan, will be held by the Cincinnati, Ohio Philatelic Society at 8 p. m. September 8 at the Cinticub, 8th and Race Sts., Cincinnati. All lots will be on display before the auction and the public is invited. After the sale, a fine U. S. collection will be displayed by Clifford Knabe. Further information concerning the auction and meetings may be obtained from J. F. Sturgill, 4938 Winneste Ave., Cincinnati 32, Ohio.

THE TELEGRAPH, CABLE, RADIO, AND TV as shown on stamps comprise another interesting field of collecting which has been pursued by New York philatelist Herbert Rosen who is best known for his Postal History material. During the first day ceremonies in New York for the recent Atlantic Cable stamp, he displayed his "radio and telegraphy on stamps" collection. The above photograph, posed before a model of the cable laying ship of a century ago, shows, left to right, Mr. Rosen, Acting New York Postmaster Robert K. Christenberry, curator Wellington E. Greyble of the Seamen's Institute, and veteran public relations counsel Edward L. Wertheim.

News Round-Up From Washington

The 4c Lincoln-Douglas Debates commem of August 27 was based on a design by Ervine Metzl with modeling by William K. Schrage of the Bureau of Engraving and Printing. It reproduces only a portion of an old print by Joseph Boggs Beale.

collectors in the United States.

But where to get the addresses?
It's really not so hard. There are published booklets, offered free, that will tell one where to write.

For stamp agencies of Europe and the Far East, plus most of Australia and the surrounding countries, collectors should write to the International Bureau of the Universal Postal Union, Berne, Switzerland. The reply is a double bargain, for the UPU's four - page list of philatelic agencies is mailed with UPU stamps issued by the Swiss government. Matthew D. Fenton engraved the vignette and Reuben K. Bar-rick the frame, lettering and numeral. Plates 26105-06-07-08 were assigned to this stamp.

A total of 1,134,121 stamps was sold, and 708,777 covers canceled, when the 4c and 8c Simon Bolivar set was issued in Washington July 24. No figures are given in the POD report for the values individually. dividually.

The 7c airmail stamp released in Philadelphia July 31 enjoyed first day sales of 862,478 stamps ($60,373.46) with 204,401 FDC's. The 7c airmail coil reached 181,603 covers canceled and 258,498 stamps sold ($18,094.86) on the same day in Miami, Fla.

Back toward the East, in Wheeling, W. Va., the 4c Lincoln booklet registered a total of 703, 954 stamps (as singles, $28,158.16) and 135,825 FDC's. This also was Canada".

The UPU's book lists 63 countries from South Africa to the U.S.S.R. It's free. Interested collectors should airmail their requests to Berne. Airletters are 10c; sealed airmail, 15c per half ounce. on July 31.

Commenting on the July 31 FD of six new adhesives and four new postal stationery items, plus one more the next day, Postmaster General Arthur E. Summerfield stated that a new FD record is imminent. With only three of the eleven items reported thus far, the FDC total is already 521,829. All the stationery, and the 4c coil, 5c airmail adhesive and 7c airmail booklet are yet to be heard from. heard from.

A special postal station, with cancellation and a stock of Philatelic Agency stamps, has been approved by the POD for the Northeastern Pennsylvania Philatelic Society exhibition, Scranton, Pa. September 27-28.

Another branch station of the same type will be operated August 30-September 1 at the "BA-PEX" convention and exhibition at Bakersfield, Calif. Collectors desiring specimens of either cancel may send stamped, addressed envelopes with requests to the envelopes with requests to the postmasters concerned.

Cachet For Stamps At Shreveport Fair

The Shreveport, La. Stamp Club will hold its first annual exhibition October 18-26 as a feature of the Louisiana State Fair. It will operate in connection with the opening of the new postal station to be located on the fair grounds.

The Post Office Department will supply a philatelic exhibit and will furnish a special state fair cancellation device for mail posted at the site.

The stamp club is offering a special cacheted envelope, posted with commemorative franking, at 10c each. The design shows the with commemorative Harring, at 10c each. The design shows the entrance to the fair grounds, with an insert map of Louisiana on which a star indicates Shreveport.

Covers will be canceled on any Covers will be canceled on any of the nine days of the celebration desired by purchasers, at the 10c per item rate. Orders with remittances (cash or mint commemoratives) should be sent to Robert F. Menasco, 1315 Fairfield Ave., Shreveport, La.

Czech Tribute To Stamp Designer

August 20 was the release date for two commemorative issues by Czechoslovakia. One marked the Czechoslovakia. One marked the 85th birth anniversary of Professor Max Svabinsky, outstanding Czech painter and graphic artist, who has designed many of that nation's stamps. The other is a set of four in tribute to a quartet of "Cultural Personalities".

Prof. Svabinsky's anniversary occurs on September 17. He prepared the design used, titled "The Poet and the Muse". It was engraved by his co-worker of many years, Jindra Schmidt, as a special request. cial request.

In a large size, brownish black in color, the stamp has a denomination of 1.60Kcs. and comes four to the sheet.

The "Personalities" honored are — Julius Fucik (1903-1943) 15th anniversary of his execution by the Nazis on September 8, 30 heller red; Gustav Karol Zechenter (1824-1908), Slovak writer, 50th anniversary of death, 45h. violet; Karel Capek (1890-1938) 20th death anniversary, 60h. blue; Svatopluk Cech (1846-1908) 50th death anniversary, 1.40Kcs. black. ment.

There's only one catch: the addresses in this book are printed in French. But even that is no hardship. Almost all of them are words that are identical to English. Anyone could make sense out of "Ministre des Postes, (Section Philatelique), Ottawa, Canada", which, in English would be "Philatelic Section, Minister of Posts, Ottawa, Canada".

The UPU's book lists 53 countries

Max Svabinsky prepared the designs which were engraved by Jindra Schmidt. Production was in sheets of 50.

Both commemorative issues were printed by the Post Printing Office.

A CHRISTMAS CARD AND PHILATELIC GIFT-ALL IN ONE

Handmade, this Christmas greeting card is designed to reflect the stamp collector's philatelic individuality. And at the same time it affords a collecting gift to the recipient.

Each card is handmounted with a dozen Scott-listed Christmas seals issued during the Depression and War Years of 1932 to 1946. None less than 12 years old. This beautiful card itself is a collector's item and full directions for recovering the seals are printed on the back of each greeting

The seals were selected with the occasion in mind: children singing carols, the ancient custom of bringing in the Yule Log, the night stars that guided the Three Kings, Santa Claus, the bell-ringing crier of Good Tidings and even our modern greeting card Carrier of the Postal Service are all depicted on this uniquely different philatelic Christmas card.

Prices are modest for this colorful and intriguing combination Christmas Card and Philatelic Gift:

CARL P. RUETH

Some days before the change in the first class letter rate from 3c to 4c, the stock of 3c stamped envelopes ran out at the United Nations post office. They only needed enough to carry them to August 1 when the new rate became effective. An order was placed for 25,000 and delivered.

placed for 25,000 and delivered.
But now, we have something of keen philatelic interest, at least to UN collectors.
The "last gasp batch" is smaller in over all dimensions than the original envelope!
The one issued September 15, 1953 measured 3%4" x 6%" (more like 6-13/16"). Those of the fill in lot are 6½" x 3%". It is not difficult to make a distinction—use a scale or lay one on top of use a scale or lay one on top of the other. The difference in size is unmistakable.

Egges Das of Haworth, N. J. brought this to my attention in a most desirable manner. He sent along samples!

1. When was Abraham Lincoln first shown in a stamp design? 2. When was Andrew Jackson first shown in a stamp design?

A subject which has been cov ered several times here, but which is of recurring interest is the matter of cacheted or un-cacheted covers, mostly first day. Which is the most desirable?

Without doubt, from a mone-tary angle, the cacheted ones are better. Considering the aesthetic, the cacheted are more pleasing to the eye. From the purely philatelic aspect, that is, evidence of the stamp being postmarked on the correct date in the official city, both are of equal importance.
Of course, the uncacheted will be cheaper since most any reasonably good quality envelope will do and such do not cost near-ly as much as the cacheted.

I'd like to pause right here and encourage you to always use good quality envelopes for your cov-ers. The cheap ones in time turn yellow and deteriorate otherwise and no one wants them.

It is generally known that ca-cheted covers will be more desir-able than ones which are not. A collection of the former will more collection of the former will more apt be purchased by a dealer or collector. But here again is another consideration. With a few exceptions even the prettiest of printed cachet covers can be liquidated for no more than the face value of the postage which they bear, usually around from 2c to 4c each.

Thus FDC's which might have Thus, FDC's which might have cost you 15c to 25c each, will not be worth more than 2c to 4c when you want to sell the collection.

However, this is more desirable than a collection of uncacheted covers which hardly any on e wants at any price.

You have to have the right You have to have the right attitude concerning first day covers. They absolutely can't be considered as an investment which will yield financial gain. Therefore, they should be collected for the pleasure one gets — such as a dish of ice cream, or an admission to a movie admission to a movie.

I like FDC's and other covers, and have a fairly decent collec-tion. But I never expect it to amount to a hill of beans finan-

You will note in this edition we have some material devoted to the coming convention of the Society of Philatelic Americans, and exhibition, at Montreal, Canada. This takes place September 18 to 21 at the Windsor Hotel.

While it does not seem possible at this time that yours truly will be there, I would like to recommend Montreal, Quebec and the Province of Quebec for your vacation — the City of Que-bec especially. Our family had our lest Canadian vacation two years ago at which time we en-

You do not need to be a mem ber of the SPA to attend this event. Just in case you might want to know more about the society, drop me a line. I've been a member for quite some time and have informative literature.

We now enter the season of good intentions. Many clubs are planning exhibitions this fall and winter and they expect the full cooperation of the members with cooperation of the members with the entry of displays from their collections. The members, of course, are determined that this year they will work up their material to fill one or more frames. But alas, most fall by the wayside and never make the

by getting to work on it.

If these few lines bring one less ulcer and headache to the people in charge of shows, they have served their purpose.

Some of you have asked where you can obtain some of the stamped envelopes which have been revalued by the Post Office Department to the higher rates. The Department prepared two designs which were used to raise the value of some existing stationery by 1c or 2c.

stationery by 1c or 2c.

The two were shown on page 9 of our July 28 paper. Included was information relative to their use. As far as we know, this data is still the last word. The surcharging was to be done on envelopes only, the regular and airmail, and not on the postal cards. It seems to be the policy with the latter to not revise their value, to destroy them instead.

Imprinting of the surcharge

Imprinting of the surcharge was performed at the various Regional Distributing Offices. Postmasters were instructed to send only unbroken original factory cartons totaling 5000 or more to the Revaluation Unit of the above-named office.

Unless a change has been made these envelopes will not be available through the philatelic agency. You will have to depend on your local post office to have them for you. I know some readers in the larger cities will offer to get them for collectors in other

This past week I was called in by the administrator of an estate to examine the philatelic possessions of a deceased collector. This otherwise tedious job could have been time consuming and nasty except for the fact that the man kept his collection and duplicate material methodically arranged and available for easy

No wading through boxes of covers indiscriminately gathered and housed from all over. Stamps in the albums and the duplicates in the albums and the duplicates were kept in an orderly and easily examined manner. Even an inexperienced person could tell what part of the holdings was more valuable than others because these things had been indicated by small slips of paper inserted at strategic spots in the albums and storage receptacles. Under such conditions an appraiser can do a fairly good job of setting a value. However, when it is lumped without sys-of setting a value. However, when it is lumped without system or reason, all the appraiser can do is to give a good guess and that of a conservative nature.

A dealer or collector would be interested in looking over for possible purchase the orderly material, and at the same time being thus able to investigate everything thoroughly to make a bid. With the hodge-podge the bid would have to be cautious to keep from getting taken.

One other thing impressed me

One other thing impressed me favorably. There were no "seconds" in the collection — missing perf stamps, torn corners, folded, heavily cancelled or shoddy looking. A few of these can dull the appetite of any purchaser no matter how good the other stuff is.

You might take these things into consideration in handling your own collections. Further, you might arrange ahead of time for someone whom you trust in all respects to assist your heirs in the disposal.

Stamps Of The Vatican Offer Beauty And History

such a wonderful story? It must never be forgotten that every stamp issued tells its own story. That is the chief reason for being a collec-tor of stamps to know at the same time how to collect them and how to understand them and their mes-sages.

In the Vatican are all kinds of interesting subjects from the philatelic point of view. There are the regular stamps, commemoratives, charity stamps, airmails, special deliveries, postage dues, and parcel post emissions. As in all countries the stamps sometimes have errors and varieties. Then there are first day covers, post cards, aerograms, and proofs.

Because I collect the stamps of the Vatican someone asked me one day, "Why do you collect Vatican stamps? Where is Vatican City located and, really, what is it?"

"My reply was that the Vatican City is a very small city of 108.7 acres or about 1/6 of a square mile, located in the western part of Italy right outside the western limits of the city of Rome.

The government of the State of Vatican City became a member of the Universal Postal Union on June 1, 1929 and the first Vatican City stamps which tell such a wonderful story? It must never be forgotten that every stamp issued tells its own story. That is that year, that is to say, two months later. The State is that in name only.

later. The State is that in name only.

Although the city of Rome was eaptured by Italian troops in the month of September 1870, those same troops never entered that part which is Vatican City today. On the contrary, instead of entering Vatican City, they stopped at the bridge of the chateau of St. Angelo.

After the votes had been taken at the subsequent peace conference and the decisions made concerning that piece of ground, and just what boundaries the Vatican City would have, it was decided that it would go to the Kingdom of Italy. Then Pope Pius IX declared that he was a voluntary prisoner and shut himself up in his papal palace.

A postal system continued to function but without postage stamps. Mail for places abroad was delivered by private courier and that arriving from abroad was delivered by two Italian letter carriers approved by the Vatican. They were in the service of the Vatican but did not wear the regular postal uniform.

the service of the Vatican but did not wear the regular postal uniform.

Finally, on February 11, 1929 after almost 60 years of that very strange situation, a concordat or agreement was signed by the Papal Authority and by the Fascist Government of Mussolini. Vatican City boundaries were recognized as those of an independent state and the Catholic faith was given a preferred status in Italy.

In July 1929 that concordat was supplanted by a postal agreement which was followed three days later by the first issue of stamps of Vatican. Due to the circumstances surrounding the issue which portrayed the Papal Arms of His Holiness Pius XI, this issue of stamps is often alluded to as the Issue of Conciliation.

alluded to as the Issue of Conciliation.

Now why do I collect stamps of the Vatican? In the first place — and a factor that is very important and extremely interesting for a philatelist — is the ease with which one can obtain these stamps either mint or used. They date from 1929 only, if one does not take into consideration the stamps of the Roman States which were issued 1852-1868.

Even so, the stamps of the Roman States which were issued 1852-1868.

Even so, the stamps of the Roman States for the greater part are not extremely rare. On the other hand it is necessary to be extremely careful in buying them because many have been so well forged that it is very difficult to recognize them from the originals.

For those who can obtain them it is so much the better, but as far from the originals.

For those who can obtain them it is so much the better, but as far as I am concerned I shall simply collect Vatican City. The stamps are always reasonably priced at the present time, with the exception of a 1934 set with an overprint which is a little expensive.

In the second place, I collect Vatican City stamps because every one

In the second place, I collect Vatican City stamps because every one contains many details which are historical as well as religious.

Beginning with the issue of 1929, you will find in the Vatican emissions many happenings relating to Pope Pius XI. Look at them and check for yourselves. Open your catalogs and take note of the issues from 1929 to 1939 and what they portray.

from 1929 to 1939 and what they portray.

In resume, they are: The Lateran and the Obelisk of Thotmes III, the Papal Arms of His Holiness Pope Pius XI, His Holiness appears on two stamps, Vatican Gardens, Basilica of St. Peter, and Tribonian. Also Jurisconsult presenting the Pandects, collections of decisions of old Roman Jurisconsults made by the Emperor Justinian and presenting them to Justinian I, Pope Gregory IX promulgating decretals.

Another set depicts doves and a bell, an allegory of the Church and the Bible, St. John de Bosco and St. Francis de Sales. Later in 1938 two other sets appeared: that of the trypt of sainte Cecela and that of the Basilica of Sainte Petronilla. Had I been given a great deal more space to write, there still would not have been sufficient room in this whole issue of Linn's to describe all the marvelous stories inspired by these stamps.

For example in 1939 we have the coronation of His Holiness, Pope Pius XI. What a beautiful event to describe! And that has happened right along one issue after the other up to the present time. Note the beauty of those stamps. That, in itself, is another reason why I collect the Vatican.

And now we have a summary of the first issues of the Vatican City. Is it not interesting to collect that

THE MATTER OF RESEARCH AND COOPERATION is part of the secret of success behind the beautiful and appropriate designs of the Arteraft first day cover series of The Washington Press, Newark, N. J. Arteraft first day cover series of The Washington Press, Newark, N. J. Above are shown Clint Davis, Director, Division of Information and Education, Forest Service; Kenneth Pomeroy, forester for The American Forestry Assn.; and William Huber, director of the Smokey Bear Program. They are checking the artwork for the official FDC's being prepared for the October 27 Forest Conservation stamp to be released at Tucson, Ariz. on Theodore Roosevelt's 100th birthday

The Vatican has all of these philatelic classifications in its stamps. These, added to a vast amount of unusual interest, are the important reasons why each of us should consider collecting issues of the Vatican.

Now to those who are already collectors of Vatican City and wish to perfect their collections to an even greater extent, I highly recommend joining the Union Philatelique de Montreal. For, while there are catalogs which specialize in the Roman States and in Vatican City, there is a great advantage in affiliating one self with a society which collects only the stamps issued by the Vatican and fosters a cooperative, specialize in the same time is acting as host to the annual convention of the Montreal is conducting the Union Philatelique de Montreal is c

Prospects Invited By Ship Cancel Club

The Universal Ship Cancellation Society is offering membership to persons interested in collecting Naval postmarks. This group specializes in covers mailed aboard ships of the United States Navy.

Merchant Marine, Seapost, Paquebot, and foreign Naval cancellations are among the items found in members' albums.

The Society has many benefits for its members — (1) The U.S.C. S. LOG; (2) Sales Department; (3) Exchange Department; (4) Auction Department; (5) Naval History Section; (6) Ship's Photo Library; (7) Veterans and Shut-Ins Program.

UNITED STATES COMMEMORATIVE ISSUES OF 1958

UNITED NATIONS POSTAL STATIONERY

Leadership comes by no accident. It is always the result of hard work and positive values which people soon begin to recognize and to which they react. Thus it is, with meaning, that more people use ARTCRAFT ENGRAVINGS than any other brand of cacheted covers in the world.

If you are one of the very few collectors who have not yet had the pleasure of seeing these fine gravure engraved originals, why not NOW try some from those listed below. Join the swing to the leader . . . ARTCRAFT—YOU'LL BE GLAD YOU DID!

United Nations Announces... 4c STAMPED ENVELOPE-3c POSTAL CARD First Day—Sept. 22nd

With changes in postage rates taking place on United Nations mails, two items of postal stationery have been announced for issue at the United Nations September 22nd. One of the items is a 3c postal card, while the other is a 4c stamped envelope (in legal and standard size). ARTCRAFT will prepare two designs—one for the envelope and one for the card—and will handle the servicing for collectors as was done on the U. S. postal stationery items. IT WILL NOT BE POSSIBLE TO ORDER ENGRAVED ENVE-LOPES FOR SELF-SERVICE FOR THESE ISSUES. We will have them cancelled on the first day, affix the special ARTCRAFT cachets and then mail them to you under cover. DEADLINE for orders is September 15th.

THIS DECADE OLD CAMPAIGN.

This is our 14th year of repeating the same message. It was an important message then and still is. It is one you should re-member for the one time in your life you will want to sell your stamps and get the most for them.

Simply it is this: The logical buyer for boldings is one who can use everything in your lot and will appraise each and every item whether general or specialized, eare-fully and fairly. The logical buyer is one who is in the cash market all vear long. One who buys as fairly in August as in December.

Thousands of satisfied sellers agree that we are that logical buyer. Dozens of lots are received here weekly for each applical and purchase. One of the very loss of the very lo

JAPAN'S TB SEAL FOR 1958-59. These come in sets of two sheets, a small one with six, and the larger with 50. The design has a snow-flake on which red dots are superimposed. As in past years these are made available through Capt. Lloyd C. Atchley, 392nd Air Base Group, Cooke AFB, Calif. who represents the Japanese Anti-TB Assn. at no profit to himself. The seals are sold only in sets of one of the large and one of the small sheets, 35c postpaid. Capt. Atchley has a small quantity of sets of sheets from the years 1952 through 1957 also at 35c postpaid. Capt. Atchley's supply is now on its way from Japan by sea mail. Japan by sea mail.

Gertrude Boss Is 82 Years Young

Fan mail and greetings from all parts of the United States came the way of Mrs. Gertrude Boss of Hopewell, Va. who just recently celebrated her 82nd birth anniversary. Readers of Linn's will remember many of her stories of a few years ago, especially her annual Christmas edition contributions. butions.

An illness of several years duration had her immobilized as far as literary efforts were concerned. However, at the moment she is as active as ever with many community efforts and activities to her credit.

Presently, she appears on the Woman's Hour each Tuesday morning over Hopewell station WHAP. Most of the time she tells about stamps and stamp collecting with numerous assists and higher the hearinging stamp fan hints for the beginning stamp fan.

While not so presently engaged, Mrs. Boss was very active in her church, and a community leader involved in numerous civic affairs. She has written professionally for several publications outside the realm of philately.

She and her son have their home at 708 N. Tenth St., Hopewell, Va.

Hungary Announces New Sports Set Of 7

To commemorate the various international sports championships which have been held, and others yet to take place, in Budapest during 1958, Hungary released a set of seven sports stamps August 30. All are photogravure printed in monochrome, in an edition of 600,000 complete sets. Colors of the individual adhesives are not stated in the ual adhesives are not stated in the official POD news release.

Of similar pattern, the 20 and 60 filler and 3 Forint values are in vertical format, while the remaining four are horizontal. They show: 20f., table tennis bat and ball, and olive branch; 30f., table tennis player; 40 and 60f., action poses of Graeco-Roman wrestlers; 1Ft., water poloplayer; 2.50Ft., fancy diver; and 3Ft., a male swimmer.

Final Details On Overland Caravan

The Post Office Department, as its part in the Overland Mail caravan leaving Tipton, Mo. September 16, will pick up souvenir mail at each of the 200 stops along the route. All will be carried to San Francisco, Calif. according to Postmaster General Arthur E. Summerfield.

This caravan is to retrace as Arthur E. Summerfield.

This caravan is to retrace, as nearly as possible, the original Butterfield Overland Mail route. It is to arrive in San Francisco October 10, as a part of the Overland Mail Centennial commemorative stamp first day ceremonies. The original Butterfield route, speeding mail between the more settled Eastern areas of the country and the Pacific Coast, was a significant development in U. S. postal service a century U. #### A BRIEF HISTORY OF THE SPA

N. R. Hoover

The Society of Philatelic Americans was organized as the Southern Philatelic Assn. on February 1, 1894 at Macon, Miss., by a group of boys and young men. J. M. Chappell, Jr. was the chief instigator and the first president.

The striking figures beside Chappell among the first members were Benjamin Russell, later a prominent cotton factor in his day, Alexander City, Ala.; J. H Conley, Munford, Ala.; and E. W. Heusinger, still living in San Antonio, Texas, and now revered life member No. 8.

The membership got up to 387 within two years. Thereafter the usual checkered career of stamp societies of that day ensued. Bad paying membership got it down to but 62 in 1897. Chappel and Russell's "Dixie Philatelist" was replaced as official organ by the "Lone Star State Philatelist" owned by Roy B. Bradley, in 1896.

Two years later August Dietz (still life member No. 76) with his "Virginia Philatelist" became official organ. The interest in the Association was at a low ebb. Dietz in one issue frankly stated he was trying to keep things going without the advice and active support of any of the officers.

Things drifted this way until January, 1903 when L. T. Brodstone stated in his magazine, the "Philatelic West", that it had been selected as official organ.

selected as official organ.

W. P. Kelley of Kansas City, Mo., had been secretary under the presidencies of three men, Dubose, Coning and Roemer. In 1904 Kelley was taken sick, subsequently dying, and the Association almost died with him. R. L. Doak of Fresno, Ohio, took the secretaryship in 1908. He could find but 18 members in good standing. Through his efforts he got the list up to 295 by November 1912.

The remarkable renaissance of the SPA dates from September, 1913 when Clifford W. Kissinger was elected president, which brings us to the consideration of a personality unique in stamp circles. "Clif" Kissinger had been a member in its early days. He joined everything in stamps, was high in the activities of the Philatelic Sons of America, the early American Philatelic Assn., and now the APS.

The membership started climbing: 1913—356; 1914—656; 1915—

The membership started climbing: 1913—356; 1914—656; 1915—945; 1916—1492; 1917—1804; 1918—1838. Kissinger changed the name of the organization to its present "Society of Philatelic Americans" at the Niagara Falls convention in 1918, the class aura of the South now completely gone.

World War I played havoc with the membership. Secretary Webb and sales manager Guest went to war. So did many other active figures.

Careless handling of the sales department records by Guest's successor led to a big blow-up at the Atlantic City convention in 1922. A ways and means committee under the chairmanship of Joseph Hoffman, the writer having been its secretary, took over the job of straightening out the mess. It took two years to satisfy all claims.

V. W. Rotnem was named president in 1923 and the group took on a new lease of life, only to have another difficulty develop several years later. This was due to the society's accepting stamps in payment of dues and then not realizing enough from the sale in auctions to cover the dues obligations.

Now 1958 finds those early years with their problems and their difficulties written into history, and in place of that original small sectional group a strong national body with well-earned position, prestige and influence on the philatelic scene. What was developed under the able leadership of the presidents we have had since those troublesome periods is exemplified in today's total membership, as of June 30, of 5389 sincere, capable and enthusiastic stamp collectors.

France-Colonies Group Elects Zweifach Prexy

The France and Colonies Group, whose members are devoted to the philately indicated in the so-ciety's name, has elected new of-ficers. Leadership has been placed in the hands of president Ira Zweifach:

Others in the official family are vice president Nathan Hale; treasurer Edmond Queyroy; recording secretary Jan Kindler; corresponding secretary Charles Bretagne, P. O Box 67, Poughkeepsie, New York.

The club produces the "France and Colonies Philatelist" under capable editorship

New UN Sets From Nicaragua And Laos

Two rather widely separated na-tions of the world, Nicaragua and Laos, have selected November 3 as Laos, have selected November 3 as release date of their respective sets of stamps noting the United Nations Economic, Social and Cultural Organization (UNESCO), according to Thomas Barberito, stamp editor of the New Orleans, La. "Times-Picayune New Orleans States".

The Laos set will note the country's actual activity in the UNESCO effort, while that from Nicaragua will concern "La Casa Central de la UNESCO" (UNESCO headquarters). The latter set will be put on sale simultaneously in Paris, New York, and Managua, Nicaragua.

Further details as to denomine

Further details as to denomina-tions, colors, particulars of designs, and editions have not been released, advised Mr. Barberito.

Delivery Of Auction Held Up By Shop Move

Heinz Hoffman, dealer in stamps and philatelic literature in Detroit, Mich., reports that the problem attending moving, un-packing and sorting thousands of packing and sorting thousands of pounds of household and business belongings to his new location has made it impossible to complete sending out all of the lots in his auction of 30 days ago.

Circumstances beyond his control held up completion of the new property until moving day coincided with the sale. He asks the patience of successful bidders, and promises that everything possible is being done to complete the necessary accounting and mailing operations to wind up the mailing operations to wind up the

THE UNIVERSITY OF MONTREAL is one of the modern educational facilities of the Canadian city. First occupied in 1942, it affords the best of faculty, equipment and cirriculum to its more than 12,000 French speaking students. The University highlights modern Montreal; other buildings not far distant recall the pioneer days which in many ways parallel those of the Colonial period of the United States.

The Jacques Cartier Ten Pence of Canada

A. Graham Fairbanks

Apart from the Royal Family, Jacques Cartier was the only person depicted on Canadian postage stamps over a period of 57 years, from 1851 up to the Quebec Tercentenary issue of 1908. That his choice was well deserved, I think all will agree upon reading a brief history of his life and contributions to Canadian history. Born in 1491 at St. Malo, Brittany, Cartier in time became an explorer and navigator. He set sail April 20, 1534 with two ships and 61 men, to find a northwest passage to the east. He reached Newfoundland on May 10 and passed the straits of Belle Isle. Then having planted a cross at Gaspe, he returned to France due to increasingly stormy weather.

After this reconnaissance voyage, he returned in 1535 with three ships and reached what he named the bay of St. Lawrence, in August. Proceeding up the river, he arrived at the Saguenay in September, then continued to Stadacona (now Quebec) where he left two ships in the St. Charles River.

In the remaining 40 ton vessel the continued to Stadacona (now quebec) where he left two ships in the St. Charles River.

In the remaining 40-ton vessel the explorers continued up the St. Lawrence and finally reached Hochelaga on October 2. Cartier named the mountain "Mont Royal" and the town below "Ville Marie". He made a third trip to Canada in 1541 and supposedly a fourth one in 1543. His career thereafter was uneventful until his death in 1557 at St. Malo.

Cartier was a heroic character of his age — devout, courageous and patriotic. His return trip hindered by pestilence and treachery of the Indians, yet he still considered these savages as God's children and guided himself accordingly. With this heritage, one can recognize the permanence of French nationality and language as part of this country.

In the Chateau de Ramezay are maps tracing his voyages and a model of his 120 - ton ship "La Grande Hermine". In Montreal Chalet murals show Cartier reading St. John's Gospel to the Indians of Hochelaga.

The Church of Notre Dame has stained glass windows also showing the above scene. In the rear of the Lookout, one can see Cartier's coat-of-arms and a picture of his welcome by the chief of Hochelaga.

As to the stamp, in March 1854 the postmaster general recommended the issue of a 10d value, due to lowered postal rates. These called for 10 pence currency (or eight pence Sterling) per ½ oz. by British

The portrait was from an original painting now in the Hotel de Ville, St. Malo, done by Francois Riss in Paris about 1839. A beaver and maple leaves form part of the design, which was engraved by Rawdon, Wright, Hatch, & Edson, New York in sheets of 120, 10 rows of 12 stamps. stamps.

Die proofs are recorded. They are very rare, but plate proofs appear on bond, India, wove, laid and blue papers; imperf and perf 12, both with and without "SPECIMEN" overprinted, in at least half a dozen colors.

In January 1855 the issue was 100, 000 stamps, on thin, oily transparent wove paper. Late in 1857 a final tot of 40,920 was printed on hard, medium to thick opaque wove paper.

Both issues are without any imprint.

Both issues are without any imprint.

The thin paper, when dampened for printing, shrank much more than the other varieties so that these copies usually have a "nerrow oval" 17mm in width, while the thicker paper copies are noted only with "wide oval" measuring 18mm.

Gibbons lists four shades of blue for this stamp, which could be narrowed down to "light" and "dark". Engraved forgeries exist, on both wove and thick yellowish papers. They are not dangerous and the shade is also too dark—an indigo blue.

Horizontal and vertical guide lines, not to be confused with double frame lines, are often noted and do not warrent any premium. A stitch watermark, however, which occurs in all Canada pence values, has been found by a few lucky collectors. It is vertical in this stamp.

Most interesting, at least to this writer, are the plate varieties, of which Jarrett lists no fewer than 16. Four of them are very major reentries. Boggs quotes the latter at 15 times the value of a normal and some experts deem this figure too high, but it gives some idea of scarcity.

too high, but it gives some idea of scarcity.

As to cancels, a fair range exists. The most unusual are a black target and a Toronto square grid. The writer possesses a copy with blue and another with red target, which must be rare, but cannot recall a green target being recorded. Four ring numerals are a bit scarcer, Holmes quoting a premium of $10. Town cancels exist but are quite rare.

Town cancels exist but are quite rare.

Multiple pieces of this stamp are few and although the list is probably incomplete, the following are known:

Pairs — At least a dozen, including three unused and two on cover. Strips of three — one on and two off cover, used.

Strip of five — one horizontal off cover, used.

Block of four — one, thick paper used, off cover; another similar but medium paper was in Lees - Jones collection, now dispersed; a third block may exist.

Several covers are noted to France, having a 10d and a 6d; these of course are very rare. In conclusion, this writer feels that research on the 10d stamp has been largely neglected, other than by a few great students, and more of it would be most rewarding.

About The Anchor That Didn't Hold

A Markman Adventure

Col. A. C. Townsend

Elmer Stuart was mad. He was mad clear through. That was Elmer Stuart was mad. He was mad clear through. That was a most unusual thing for Elmer, who had come up through the ranks of the Chicago Philatelic Society to fill many important positions, including the presidency, and who was now an honorary life member and one of Chicago's leading dealers.

This showed his popularity, but there was still another thing to his credit. In almost all cases in all clubs when a man gets to be club president that is about the last seen of him. He has attained the control of the president that is about the last seen of him.

his ambition and after his term of office is ended he fades away rather quickly. Think it over and I'm sure you will agree with me.

But Elmer was the big exception. He still came regularly to meetings and was prominent in whatever was going on. In almost any special event he would be one of the real workers.

But now Elmer was mad, be-cause he felt humiliated. For the cause he felt humiliated. For the first time in his career as a dealer a stamp had been returned to him as carrying a faked cancellation, and the dickens of it was that it was a fake. He knew that, when he came to study it after getting over the shock of its return, but he had gotten it from a man who had bought it at the sale of the Ed Knapp collection, and that was such an O. K. that it had never occurred to him to question or study it.

Now he wrote a check in re-question or study it.

Now he wrote a check in repayment, folded his apologetic letter to his old friend and customer, put it and the check in an envelope, stuck on a stamp and hammered it down with his fist to let off a little steam. Next, on went his hat, he put a sign on his office door and made for the exit. Dropping the letter in the chute beside the elevator, he made for the nearby hotel where Markman, noted philatelic detective and old friend, had a little suite of rooms.

He had already phoned Markman he was coming over, so

He had already phoned Markman he was coming over, so went right up and tapped on his door. Markman called for him to come in and started a cheery greeting, but he stopped as he saw Stuart's face and jumped to his feet. "What's wrong, old man? You haven't been robbed, have you?"

"No," replied Elmer, with a very sour grin." I've been robbing the other fellow. And he added earnestly, "I want revenge."

added earnestly, venge."

"Wait a minute, wait a minute," laughed Markman. "Back up and start over. You can't get any revenge for robbing another man—which of course you didn't do. Have a cold drink and settle down and tell me just what's ..."

tle down and tell me just what's up."

So Stuart drank and got at ease in a comfortable chair and replied with a smile, "I've been accused of selling a stamp with a fake cancellation." He went on and told the story, and said finally, "What I want you to do is to hunt up the first fellow who put out that fake, and then I'll show him up and make him sorry he ever got me into such a jam. "I'd like to prosecute him for altering a U. S. security. Could I do that?"

"I'm afraid that would be pretty difficult. The statute says 'al-try difficult. The statute says 'altering or defacing', which would make it pretty hard. But I don't know yet just what this is all about. Suppose you start all over again."

about. Suppose you start all over again."

Elmer laughed, a real laugh this time. "I guess I did mix it up badly. Now I'll try to give it to you straight." He gave Markman a slip of paper. A while ago I bought the collection of an old friend and customer (the first man on that list) from his widow. In it there was a nice 10c 1857 with a lovely 'anchor' cancel square on the stamp, and beside it was penciled 'Ed Knapp col.' Knowing Ed and how wise he was on cancellations that was a guarantee to me and I never examined it closely; just put it away among some other special things.

"Then a while later I get the things.

"Then a while later I got the stamp out and sent it to No. 2 on that list, also an old friend-collector, and he bought it and thanked me for it. That was two thanked me for it. That was two months ago.

"This morning I had a letter from him in which he said he had sent it to a leading expert, No. 3 on the list, just to let him see such a beauty, and was shocked to have it returned with the statement that the anchor had been added over what little other cancellation there was!

"Said that then he had gotten to work on it himself and saw that statement was true! So did I this morning, and I'm heartily ashamed of myself for not hav-ashamed of myself for not having spotted it before, Now, what I want you to do is this."

He paused to take a long breath, then went on. "You go out and see if you can uncover the trail—who first put it on the market—and then give me his name and address and I'll do the rest!

"Think you can do that?"

"Think you can do that?"

"This is Tuesday and I have nothing pressing to do. I'll start out tonight. I'll see you within a week, and hope I'll bring home the bacon. Have you told anyone else? Good. Don't. Now let's chat of other things, unless you want to get back to business."

So Morkman set out. He had else? Good. Don't. Now let's chat of other things, unless you want to get back to business."

So Markman set out. He had nice interview with Stuart's friend who had sent back the stamp. Then he saw the widow, but she didn't know much about stamps. She did know that her husband and Mr. Stuart were old friends—he and his wife had visited them, in fact—so when she came to sell the collection she naturally turned to Elmer. All the information of possible value she could give was that her husband sometimes put a little note as to where he got some stamp that he prized. So Markman went to the Parke-Bernet Galleries, the firm that made up the auction catalog and sold Ed. Knapp's stamps. He told his story, and they were most helpful. From their files they got out a huge folder of everything connected with the sale. Markman struck a gusher!

There were Ed's written notes of things he wanted attention drawn to when the catalog was made up. Beside the "10c 185" space was a note, "Brought 1924, Sid. Shayman, Chi. $10." Markman was joyful; at least he had something more of a trail now. He thanked the firm warmly for their help, went out and stowed away a good dinner and took the night train back to Chicago.

He knew Sidney Shayman and knew he was a collector of U. S. cancels. Friday evening he saw Sid, and Saturday morning he walked into Elmer's office as a customer walked out. He had waited outside for that.

Elmer jumped up and shook hands and stared at him, for Markman wore a peculiar expression and Elmer couldn't tell whether he wanted to laugh or look solemn, like a disappointed man. So he took Markman into the back office, seated him and fired point blank, "Any luck?"

Markman replied from behind his handkerchief, "I have the name and address of the Chicago luck?"

Markman replied from behind his handkerchief, "I have the name and address of the Chicago dealer who first put that stamp on the market."
"A Chicago dealer! Who? I'll find some way to prosecute him, no matter what it costs me. Who was it?"
"I'm afraid you can't go after him Elmer. I'm afraid you will have to keep it a deep dark secret. His name is Elmer Stuart, then doing business at 62 W.

Washington St. And Markman doubled up in smothered laugh-

Elmer stared at him bugeyed.
"I don't believe it! I never saw that stamp until I got it from the widow. Don't talk such rot."

widow. Don't talk such rot."

"Yes you did, Elmer. You had just started up as a regular with an office and a young man came in with a little collection in a small Globe album that he wanted to sell. You looked it over and bought it for a few dollars, and right after the fellow had left and you were still going over it again the man to whom you sold that stamp came in and . . ."

"I have absolutely no such recollection. Who was it?"

"Sidney Shayman, a fellow

"I have absolutely no such recollection. Who was it?"

"Sidney Shayman, a fellow club member." Elmer shook his head vigorously, but Markman went on. "He looked at the book with you, wanted that stamp and paid you two dollars for it. Don't shake you head loose; you sold it to Sid. Let me tell you why I'm so sure and you'll have to admit I'm right. I saw Sidney last night. "He is a keen fellow with a fine memory. He was rather green when he joined the club in the 1920's, but he got interested in cancels and covers and you and Walter Emerson were educating him a bit on values. He knew that Ed Knapp was bugs on cancels and he got the sudden idea of buying that stamp from you and then selling it to Knapp. To make it short, he paid you two dollars for it and sold it to Ed for ten, which tickled him (Continued on page 27)

$25 Catalog-Value QUALITY-LOT FREE! With purchase of regular $10 or $20

LONDON BANK NOTES!

We're celebrating the opening of our new street-level store at 411 West Chestnut St. in downtown Louisville! For the occasion, we've imported a $25 catalog-value lot of better stamps that are sure to start your fingers itching! AND IT'S FREE!

There's about 198 stamps in the lot - includes many British Colonies, numerous Latin America, U.S. high values, airs a commems; other worldwide such as Belgian Congo, Ethiopia, Swiss commems, Thailand, Laos, Philippine commems - and so on, all around the world! It's net loaded with iron-curtain material to make the total gatalog value impressive, either! This is a once-in-a-lifetime bargain - because this is the first (and probably the only) time we'll ever open a new stamp stere! So we figure to do it up right!

Each $16 or $20 London Bank Let ordered before Sept, 25th will be accompanied by a $25 cat, val. lot as described, at an extra cost - FREE! Don't delay, supply is limited. (If you prefer CASH savings, you may take a special discount of $3 from the $10 Bank Let, or $6 from the $20 lot! State your choice.)

DO YOU KNOW ABOUT LONDON BANK LOTS?

Our London Bank Lets are real bank mixture - elippings from airmail, registered and high value pieces of mail, largely. British Colonials, but with a wide variety of other material as received by banks and export houses in London. Naturally, many new and current issues are included. We have been importing this bank material, in ever-larger quantities, and can report a wide acceptance by collectors in every state. One collector wrote that he'd "never seen so many chilling values" in a bank lot before! Avallable in $5, $10 and $20. lots, and always sold on a money-back guarantee of satisfaction. (Over the years, the rate of returns is less than 1%!) Free offer above limited to $10 and $20 lots, but set to leave the $5 buyers out, we'll send along a free surprise gift with each $5 lot ordered before Sept, $5th.

THAT'S THE DEAL — one offer to a customer, please; make sure your order is in early, and just ask for your free $25 quality-lot! You'll be a happy stamp-collector!

March UAR Pair From Egypt Marks Step From Arab Hopes To Actual Accomplishments

Moving ahead of the Post Office Department of the Syrian region of the United Arab Republic, the Egyptian Regional Postal Administration began issuing Egyptian stamps beneath the superscription of the UAR only a month after the proclamation of the union of Egyptiand Syria ministration began assumed and the state of the UAR only a month after the proclamation of the union of the UAR only a month after the proclamation of the union of Egypt and Syria.

The first of these federally inscribed adhesives was the orange semipostal 10 mils + 5m. "First Afro-Asian Congress of Ophthalmology" in honor of a subsidiary organization of the pioneer Bandung Conference of Afro-Asian states. It appeared March 1.

In the place of honor at the top of the stamp, reading from right in individually, as in western "Arabic left, is an Arabic inscription with which we had better become familiar. It is the full official name of the first Arab union of modern times and will probably appear on stamps of an increase of the individually copied from the Arabs was their system or method of placing and using the figures for mathematical computations, rather than the shape of the numerals themselves, of which only "1" and "9" are almost identical in both systems.

The title reads: "Al-Jumhuriyat al-Arabiyat al-Mutahidat". It is followed immediately on the left by the three English letters "U.A.R." Beneath both the Arabic and English country names appears the regional name "Egypt", which, in Arabic, reads "Misr". The year date "1958" also appears bilingually below the national inscriptions. tional inscriptions.

Superimposed on the Afro-Asian world map is an ancient Egyptian "eye" symbol, as the central design of the stamp. The bilingual commemorative inscrip-tion in honor of the Congress is directly below it, with the fig-ures of value tucked in the lower right and left corners respective-ly.

On March 22, the UAR's own commemorative set, appeared a handsome pair of bicolors, one is for regular postage, the other for airmail. The 10M. regular is green and yellow; the 15m. airmail, brown and blue. Both designs are identical except for an airplane and the Arabic airmail inplace of the Arabic "Post" on the scription on the higher value in lower value. lower value.

Neither "Postage" nor "Airmail" appears anywhere on either stamp in any language other than Arabic, but airmail collectors can be guided by the airplane in flight between the two sections of the Republic in selecting the 15m. value for their collections.

15m. value for their collections.

The central design is the eastern end of the Mediterranean Sea, with the sun of a new day of Arab unity rising on the horizon. Two sections of the map, representing the Egyptian and Syrian regions of the new country, have been graphically raised from the rest of the map and joined with an arch on which is inscribed in Arabic the name of the new Republic.

Each region is labeled with its

"Misr" and "Suriya", respectively. The postal or airmail Arabic script, in quite small type, reads downward to the right of the map of Egypt, directly above the figures value in western numbers.

The Arabic values are to the left of the arch. "M" and the equivalent Arabic letter "mim" are now the standardized Egyptian designations for the old "mills" currency. This, being based on the foreign word "mil systems.

The zero in Arabic is a dot, like a decimal point, while the "o" shaped Arabic numeral means "5", so philatelists should not jump at identifying an Arabic "15" as "10". An Arabic "6", too, looks pretty much like a western figure "7", so only "1" and "9" are always certain of correct identification.

The Cairo Post Office Department, which has been paying a lot more attention to philately recently, largely as the result of friendly advice by such globetrotting philatelic writers (and old friends of Egypt) as Ernest A. Kehr of the New York Herald Tribune stamp and coin desk, designed and applied an attractive for the pair of t signed and applied an attractive first day cancel to this pair of

The first day postmark, in the shape of the upper half of a circle, measures 35mm across the bottom and is 19mm high. Around the edge of the circle is the bilingual inscription, divided by a star, of the new country's name. In the center is a chain of two links, flanked by the date "22 March, 1958," in English and Arabic.

The town of issue "Cairo" in English and "al-Qahirah" in Arabic is across them bottom. This marking usually ties the two stamps together and is also applied to the side, as it is largely illegible on the stamps themselves due to the fine lines and minute letters in which it was designed.

Some extremely attractive and appropriate FDC's were made up by "OPH" (probably: "Oriental Philately" or "L'Orient Philatelique") for this issue, in five colors. The main design, on a blacklined dia mond-shaped background, is a shield bearing the silhouetted portraits of Syrian President Shukri al-Quwatly (on the left) and Egyptian (and now President Shukri al-Quwatly (on the left) and Egyptian (and now UAR President Gamal Abdul Nasser, facing each other.

The shield is mounted on the symbolic eagle or hawk which has been adopted by both Egypt and Syria for Arab Nationalist reasons. In Syria it represents the "Hawk of the Quraysh"—the romantic young Prince Abdurrahman of the fallen Omayyad dynasty of Damascus, who alone escaped the massacre of the Omayyads by the Abassids when Baghdad supplanted the Syrian capital as the seat of the Arab empire in the mid-8th century A.D.

A.D.
Young Abdurrahman took refuge in Moslem Spain where he founded the brilliant Spanish Omayyad dynasty whose caliphate of the west became the focal point of European scholars in the Middle Ages. Through this court at Cordova, most of the classic heritage of Greece and Rome, with additional Arab development, which had been saved by translation into Arabic during the Dark Ages of Europe, was retransmitted to European scholarship in preparation for the Renaissance.

are now the standardized Egyptian designations for the old "mills" currency. This, being based on the foreign word "millie mes" ("thousandths"), may eventually be discarded in favor of an Arabic word like "fils".

The words "United Arab Republic" in large block letters, with a tiny regional inscription "Egypt" and the western figures of the date of the union (1-2-1958) of last February 1 fill out the bottom of the stamp. The Arabic date figures (right to left) appear in the upper left corner.

Thus, Syria's "Hawk of the Quraysh" design which has appeared on many Syrian stamp issues, has behind it a great deal of significance not only to the Arabs but to the west. It symbolizes the nickname given to the brave young Omayyad princeling by an admiring enemy—the Arabic to the west. It symbolizes the nickname given to the brave young Omayyad princeling by an admiring enemy—the Spriar to to the west. young Omayyad princeling by an admiring enemy—the Abassid Caliph of Baghdad—with reference to the emir's descent from the Quraysh, the tribe of the prophet Mohammed, and to his hawk-like flight to Spain to found a "new nest of Omayyads". In Egypt the same symbol has been taken from the shield of the great Saladin, Sultan of Islam and conqueror of the Crusaders at Jerusalem. Medieval Moslem knights in contact with the Crusaders were greatly impressthemselves written left to right Crusaders were greatly impressed by heraldic devices on the shields of the Christian knights and began to adopt them. Even fleurs-de-lys have appeared on the arms of Mamluk sultans of Egypt.

Saladin chose an eagle or hawk Saladin chose an eagle or hawk design, in yellow, as on the FDC cachet, for his arms. This is still retained by his direct lineal descendents, the Ayyubid princes of Lebanon, today. Modern Egypt, on discarding the crown of the discredited Faroukian monarchy, selected Saladin's arms for the national symbol for reasons of Arab Unity.

Saladin had united Egypt, Syria, Iraq, Yemen and most other important Arab Middle East lands under the Ayyubid dynasty's crown and then began the nasty's crown and then began the century-long task of expelling the Crusaders from Arab Palestine. Since modern Arab Nationalism is moving in the same direction, the modern Egyptians are inspired by this symbol, and it, too, has appeared on Egyptian stamps.

has appeared on Egyptian stamps.

The old state flags of Egypt and Syria flank the heraldic device, and the colors of the revolution (red, white and black) appear as colored discs below the arms. The UAR now has its own flag, of course, based on the design of the old Syrian state flag (three horizontal stripes of black, white and red, with two green stars on the white stripe, thus making up both the colors of the Revolution and the Arab National colors). We may expect to see this flag, in natural colors, on Syrian and Egyptian UAR commemorative stamp, too, in the very near future. very near future.

The country name, in red Kufic Arabic and in green English wording appears at the top of the FDC together with the day of issue dates, and "First Day of Issue" in small Arabic and English type appears at the bottom. Altogether it is one of the most colorful and symbolic FDC's issued thus far by any Arab philatelic organization.

Academy Albums For Brussels And WIF

Academy Stamps, Inc., 1766 NW. 7th St., Miami 35, Florida, has just published the second of three proposed sections to house the world issues of Brussels Fair stamps. The first set of 8 pages was published several weeks ago.

Release date of the new set of the same size was August 18, and the third and final group of pages will be issued in October. The entire series will provide complete Fair coverage with space for all regularly issued stamps and miniature sheets devoted to the huge Brussels Exhibition.

sales Exhibition.

The pages are printed on heavy white stock with each stamp illustrated in a double-line frame with suitable brief captions. They are without borders, and carry a five-color title design featuring the Brussels star. Corners are rounded, and the pages are punched for the usual three-ring binder.

Prices are $1.25 for Part II (issues to June) and $1 for Part II. Extra pages, blank save for the title design, are -75c per ten. Reservations are being accepted for Part III, and suitable binders and slip cases to complete the album are available from the firm. sels Exhibition.

Stamps Are Where You Find Them; Modest "Wanted" Ads Produce Unexpected Results

Like I wrote some little time ago, try advertising for stamps in the boondock weeklies. You may draw a blank, may make quite a few non-productive contacts—and you may, like me, turn up a sleep-er, almost next door. Here's a sleeper I turned over and what I er, almost next did to awaken it.

Comes a youngster, around 35-40, pole-stepper by trade. I'd known him, his wife, his kids, gramp and grammom ten-fifteen years. Anyway, he ambles up to me in a crossroads sloppery, one suds generating afternoon. Allows as how he had a mess of stamps, and all that. Told him to bring 'em to my wickiup, sometime.

generating afternoon. Allows as hall that. Told him to bring 'em to One not pole-stepping-weather day, here he comes, bangs on my portal and asks if I'm at liberty; if so, he'd bring in his chattels. I was, so he goes out to his car, returns with his arms full—FULL! Three old, newsprint toy albums and about 'steen cigar boxes, and plumped 'em all down on my oilcloth covered refectory. Before my dilated pupils he told me that plunder began in Germany where grandsire started a boy's collection which he brought to the States in the '90's. The old boy eventually became the only postmaster in about a billion square miles of eastern Oregon sagebrush—and s a v e d, Saved, SAVED!

BIG and little GOSHES and cosmic WHAMS! (Mind your cardiacs and ulcers now; possibly gulp some tranquilizers).

Fustly, and naturally let's glance at the German boy's album; stuckdown, of course, BUT—Don't laugh, folks, or get glance at the German boy's album; stuckdown, of course, BUT —. Don't laugh, folks, or get greedy, but just about everything was there in pre-confederation stuff, plus some authentic Heligoland. Sachsen No. 1, pretty dark, was only a little narrow on one side.

Both Schleswig-Holstein 1850's were there, complete with glowing silk trimmings; Preussen, ditto. In fact, there was good representation all the way from Baden to Wurttemberg, with a scattering from contiguous areas—skilling-bancos and first Swiss Federations.

Sidestepping an impending cor-erations.

Sidestepping an impending coronary and wishing a chance to get my eyes back into dependable focus, I told the guy he quite probably had something, that time only would tell when Fd gone through it. At the same time I warned him of my being afflicted with philatelic stickyfingeredness, a trait he must cautiously cultivate. Advised right off, his keeping Grandpa's I'il ole German album intact. More about that, later.

Having reached the phase of restricted physical activity, the prospect of extended sedentary occupation was really delightful. Seemed like he'd never quit his babbling, get t'hell out of my wigwam and leave goodwife (also an addict and handicapped, too) to wallow in the apparent bonanza, nipping succulent tidbits as we meandered. On the side, some of those cigar boxes were, in themselves, ancient, collector's items.

Well, betimes, the owner would drop in. Our advice was his starting a collection of U.S.; that a very good representative lot was there and, if he chose, he might convert his duplicate items into those he lacked. This sounded reasonable to him and he shot the necessary ducats for a recommended album because the investment really appeared warranted and he was keen. His "biscuit-burner" was also simmering, stampwise.

cuit-burner" was also simmering, stampwise.

One "child's" album was scanned and classified for the kids.

The cigar boxes yielded a hodge-podge, first divided into three categories: U.S., foreign and uncollectable. Next followed further screening of the two former groups, dividing the common from the more desirable and, semifinally, bathing the lot. This incidentally, took two days.

Then followed watermarking

Then followed watermarking and gauging the U.S., as indicated, and may all the plagues that afflicted the chosen children plus a few more we can think up, in concert, await on St. Michael's rolls to confront the perpetrators of this perennial torment they dumped upon us U.S. collectors the first and second decades of this century! this century!

mostly selected copies. His sur-plus of U.S. he proposes to circu-late in a dependable exchange for items he lacks.

items he lacks.

The foreign material was similarly processed excepting, of course, his grandfather's boyhood collection. Grab-bag material will be parcelled out to the kids by mother, on rainy days. Collectable foreign items, of which the accumulation was really scarce, will be held.

Now, in the lot were some really courted by outstanding postal items, very will be held.

Now, in the lot were some really outstanding postal items: very early Central Europe postal stationery and covers; early Egyptian and Sudan registered covers to Germany; first flight Zeppelins of the early '20's; Franco-German War, and Boer War and World War I — perhaps fifty items in all—SELECT material. This, together with the ancestral lot, is neatly packaged, to be tucked away for another generation or two, with a note enclosed as to its potential value.

Of course, this experience may be unique—yet how will YOU know unless you chance that ad, scanned by probable owners of philatelic material away out in what the uninitiate call the "boondocks."

Charity Overprint On Haiti "Brussels"

August 30 was the day of issue for a set of three overprinted charity stamps from Haiti, with the surtax devolving to the Haitian Red Cross organization. Three of the Brussels Fair set were the basic adhesives employed.

employed.

A simple overprint of a heavycross and "+50/centimes" was applied in red to the 1 Gourde violet, the 1.50G. orange and the 2.50G. red airmail. The total face value thereby became 6.50G., of which 1.50G.
was for the Red Cross.

The editions are not announced,
but the Haitian Philatelic Agency states that the trio will remain on sale until September 30 unless sold out sooner, and that validity is unlimited.

Canton, Ill. is using a slogan cancel reading "U. S. TREASURY DEFENSE BOND FLAG CITY", according to Fred Weber, Belleville, Ill. stamp enthusiast.

There has been no official announcement concerning the use of the device and the length of time it will be used. Collectors may therefore submit at their own risk, stamped, addresses covers to the postmaster, Canton, Ill. with request for servicing with this postmark.

With more than 3500 new stamps issued yearly, and almost 90% of them falling into one or several of the topical collectors' categories, only a qualified organization is capable of checking and listing them satisfactorily for ready reference by collectors.

this century!

The job is definitely not for the novice. This chore, alone, took both of us a full day's time so, what with cleaning, classifying, and burning the doubtfuls, don't YOU grouse over the premium you have to pay for these stamps.

When he put them into his album, our pole-stepping friend had to use several binder spacing strips. In all categories, postal, revenue, departmental, and the rest, he has a very good start of

Early School Noted On Finnish Commem

To mark the 100th anniversary To mark the lowin anniversary of the founding of the first sec-ondary school in the land, Fin-land will issue a 30 markka sin-gle October 1.

The design will depict the seal of the Jyvaskyla Lyceum, the founding of which of a century ago marked an important step forward in education in the tiny European country.

The newcomer was designed by Olavi Vepsalainen, after a sketch by Prof. Aulis Blomstedt. B. Ekholm was the engraver. The color and printing method are not announced, but the edition will be Doubly interesting beyond the fact that it is representative of the Franco-Prussian War's balloon post out of Paris is the above flown . It is a copy of the "Gazette des Absents" issue No. 9 of Novem-19, 1870 which was carried on the November 24-25 Paris to Norway flight of the "Ville d'Orleans" mentioned by the author. It is folded to less than half its size to show parts of pages 1 and 4. Pages 2 and 3 carried more printed news and the written letter, respectively. (Bob Jones collection).

rate of 20 centimes for France and Algeria and a postcard at the rate of 10c; letters for foreign countries were to be franked at the usual

The different forms of letters manufactured by private industry were soon to meet the competition of the "lettres-journaux" (journal letters). That was the name given to printed newsletter sheets weighing the required 4 grams. The first two pages gave a resume of the daily events of the siege (of Paris), the third page was for private correspondence and the fourth was kept free for the address and the postage stamp.

A total of 66 piloted balloons left Paris during the siege. Of that number two were lost at sea and a few were captured. The distance record is claimed by the balloon "La Ville d'Orleans" which landed in Norway after traveling 3132 kilometers (about 2,000 miles) in 14 hours 45 minutes.

The stamps issued for the empire were quickly used up and were re-placed on October 11 by a special "Siege of Paris" issue. Three values, 10, 20 and 40c, were printed from the original plates which had been used in 1849-1850. During the siege it was impossible used in 1849-1850.

During the siege it was impossible to supply the post offices in the departments outside Paris with stamps, so it was decided to print new supplies in Bordeaux. Very good copies were made of the different stamps which were current at that time. The portrait of the emperor was replaced by that of the allegory of "Liberte" (Liberty). These adhesives were not perforated due to the lack of perforating machines.

These varieties were first produced November 6, 1870 and their manufacture continued up to March 17, 1871. The plates from which they were printed were destroyed August 12, 1871. After the armistice of January 28, 1871 these stamps also became current in Paris.

Types and varieties of them are very numerous. Since the copies of a "bloc-report" were made by hand, it is easy to imagine the very great variety of the stamps. The shades of color of these emissions were also very many in number and they differed greatly from those of the empire stamps.

Thus is reviewed as briefly as possible the strange situation of the postal service in France during that "annee terrible" (dreadful year).

possible the strange situation of the postal service in France during that "annee terrible" (dreadful year). There certainly are not many periods of time as interesting for study by a collector as these three issues which are so very different from each other, and so rich in varities, postmarks, and cancellations. Also, one must consider them in the light of the communications media between the three truly different zones. This vast field of research is with-those rugged days 88 years ago gave the world its first successful airmail service, combining balloons for outgoing mail with pigeons for incoming messages. The airmail postcard, the air-letter sheet, the V-mail of the late world war were all born then and there.

Students of both airmail and photography are amazed when they learn that the "up-to-the-minute" V-mail was modern only in the method of reproducing the message films upon arrival at their destinations. In "the old days" they were projected on a screen and transcribed by clerks, whereas in the recent circumstance they were automatically enlarged on photographic paper.

Mais oui, studying the airmail of the Franco-Prussian war is rewarding, as visitors will note when they examine the displays at the September 18-21 "EXUP VIII" exhibition in the Hotel Windsor, Montreal, Canada, where the Union Philatelique de Montreal will play host to the annual convention of the Society of Philatelic Americans.

d in Linn's. His activities in the precancel area made him known even more extensively than he was in the general stamp field. He was connected with the "PRECANCEL BEE", an old-time precancel publication and was publisher for about 20 years of the Mitchell-Hoover Bureau catalog. He held various offices in the Precancel Stamp Society and seldom missed a convention. Besides writing many articles of note for the general stamp field he wrote frequently for the precancel group as well.

One of his collections which not too many knew about was off-centered Bureau Prints. Each stamp had to show color on the off-centered Bureau Prints. Each stamp had to show color on the perfs of two adjacent sides to be eligible for this collection.

Believe me, finding them was not as easy as one might think. A lot of stamps are off-center, but to get them that much is something else again. I found only about a half dozen that he accepted for that collection in ten or twelve years. "Steve" will be missed by his many friends I am sure.

MICHIGAN MASTER WANT

Compiled by J. W. DeLisle and published by Richard J. Coda, Sr., the new list is based on a total of 597 Michigan towns. The new towns of Allen Park, Portage and Tekonsha are not listed because they are of recent authorization and should find their levels after time for circulation of their emissions. The towns of

Mission Mixture A Ton At A Time

Ernest A. Kehr

Many wholesalers are delighted when they can fill an order for a few thousand stamps, sets or packets. Brother Damian, however, of Saint Joseph's Abbey in Spencer, Mass., is used to selling postal paper in thousand-POUND lots. Indeed, only recently he shipped one order weighing a ton and a half! And figuring that there are about 2,000 stamps in each pound, that means the 21 barrels in which they were shipped to a regular customer contained some 6 million specimens!

'mission mix" shipment of 3000 pounds.

The Cistercian (Trappist) Monks of Saint Joseph's Abbey who supplied this material established their stamp business in 1953, in an endeavor to raise funds for the erection of new monastic buildings in the rolling hills of Spencer, Mass. to replace the fifty-year-old abbey that was destroyed by fire three years before.

fore.

Saint Joseph's got the idea of turning stamps into cash in Europe. For a number of years, Belgium issued semipostals, the surtax from the sale of which was given to their brethren for the reconstruction of the Orval and Achel Abbeys. The monks admit that it would have been nice if the United States could have been prevailed up to follow Belgium's generous gesture, but since the Post Office Department traditionally refuses to issue and sell semipostals, they had to find another method to get financial support from the philfinancial support from the phil-atelic field.

Like many other religious communities, Saint Joseph's decided to become "mission mixture" suppliers. Using their facilities to solicit postage stamps, they set up a modest bureau at Spencer and began finding dealers who would purchase these donated stamps by the pound.

In the four years that it has been in operation, Saint Joseph's Abbey has collected and disposed of some seven tons of domestic and foreign postage stamps. Cusof some seven tons of domestic and foreign postage stamps. Customers include a number of individual collectors, but most shipments go to dealers throughout the United States and such foreign lands as Canada, Mexico, Panama, Dutch Antilles, British Guiana, Japan, Italy, Switzerland, Sweden, Netherlands, and the British Isles. British Isles.

Brother Damian is proud of the fact that much of the bureau's income is derived from repeat orders. In fact, after customers examine sample orders, they invariably place much larger ones again and again. Brother attributes the success of his project to the fact that the mixtures supplied by Saint Joseph's Abbey are absolutely unpicked.

Rumania Brussels Overprints

A hasty overprint, in red, has been applied to the Sputnik triptych recently produced by Kumania. The set has not been announced by CARTIMEX, the State Trading Organization, and appears to have been produced exclusively for retail in the USA, principally through one single New York wholesaler.

The overprint is applied by letter-press, and prices appear to ap-proximate double the nominal value of the basic stamps computed at the official exchange rate.

The overprint consists of a plain outline "Brussels Star" on the left-hand field of the triptych; of the star surrounded by the inscription "EXPOSITIA UNIVERSAL BRUX-ELLES 1958" on the center stamp, and another plain outline star on the right stamp. As a proportion of the stamps were printed tetebeche, the overprint exists inverted. The combinations are offered

Iceland Extends Tribute To Horse

It is not the horse for which a king offered his kingdom, nor is it a pedigreed hayburner of parimutual reknown—it is just the eommon, barnyard "dobbin" variety of equine to which Ice-land acknowledges its gratitude fand acknowledges its gratitude for centuries of transportation services. In public tribute to this noble steed, the country will is-sue a pair of commemoratives September 27, according to the Iceland Postal Administration and Jonas Hallgrimsson, Box 1116 Revisivit Leeland 1116, Reykjavik, Iceland.

Of common design, one will be a 10 aur gray and the other a 2.25 Krona brown, after a design by Haldor Petursson of Reykjawik. Printing is being done by De La Rue & Co., London, in sheets of 50. The editions are not announced. announced.

While not in honor of the oceasion, the new set will be issued on the opening day of the nation's first philatelic exhibition,
"FRIMEX 1958". The honored
subject, as stated, is the Icelandic horse which was the sole transportation medium in the country for hundreds of years until the advent of the railroad, automobile and airplane.

The Iceland POD offers FDC's at 1Kr. above face value of the stamps affixed, with a deadline for receipt of orders of September 20. Remittances for mint stamps or FDC's must include return postage at 2Kr. per ounce, plus registration if desired.

Orders should be sent to Frimerkjasalan, Direction General des Postes et des Telegraphes, Reykjavik, Iceland. Bank drafts, certified checks or international postal money orders, and airmail postal money orders, and airmail service, should be used in order-ing.

Butterfield Mail Cachet At Carlsbad

Possibly the most fully covered event—from the philatelic point of view—in U. S. history will be the circumstances leading up to the October 10 release of the Butterfield Overland Mail Centenary stamp. Many of the 200 stops along the rerun caravan's route, and the 26 overnight corrals (stops) will have special cancellations or cachets, and many stamp groups will note the event with their own offerings.

The Carlsbad, N. M. Stamp Club where the September 28 overnight stop will be made, has issued a pictorial cachet in sepia depicting the horses and coach shown on the stamp, set off against a background of El Capitan Mountain at Guadalupe Pass. This was a famous landmark on the original trail. A concise caption completes the cachet.

Priced at 10c each, they may be ardered from Virginia Legge P. O. Possibly the most fully covered

Booklet Clarifies Bureau Precancels

Probably every stamp collector, at one time or another, has wanted to extend his collecting activities to include certain other kinds of stamps that appeal to him. However, he often finds it difficult to obtain a really good "guide" in his chosen new field. Such a situation seemingly has existed in the field of United States

Bureau Precancels until just recentby. Now there is available a 32-page, meatly printed and profusely illustrated booklet dealing with this one group of stamps. Called "The Lure and Lore of United States BureauPrecancels", it is published by George Klein of Vincennes, Ind.
In 12 chapters it explains what Bureau Precancels are and in what ways they differ from local precan-ways they differ from local precancels. It is an excellent introduction to the Bureau Precancel field. The price is 25c, from the authorpublisher, George Klein, P. (). Box 461, Vincennes, Ind.

SET HAS RELIGIOUS THEME. On August 13 West Germany's Berlin Postal Administration released a set of two commemoratives to note the 78th "German Catholic Day". This celebration was held in Berlin from August 13 to 17. Both stamps have the same design, a statue of Christ surrounded by an atomic pattern. Denominations and colors are 10pf. emerald and 20pf. magenta. The cover was sent by Joachim Dill, Martin Luther Str. 28, (13a) Bad Neustadt a.d. fraenk. Saale. Germany.

ATA Names McAlpin Official New York Hotel
